Died from Fright.

A Mexican family was on its way to town last evening from the neighborheed of Warner's lake, and when passing along the road by the Chinese vegafter them and came very near eatching one of the boys by the leg. The boy picked up a reck to defend himself and threw it at the dog. At that instance a Celestial put in an appearance with a pistel in hand and fellowed the family for about two hundred yards, threatening to shoot them. Finally he leveled the pistol at the mother, and from tright she fainted and fell in her tracks. The alarm was given to some Mexican neighbors, who hurried to the scene. The weman was picked up insensible and brought to town, but seen died, presumably from fright. The Chinaman was arrested and is now in jail. He will have an examination this morning before Justice Scott .- Star.

Ambrese Acquitted. The case of the Territory against Owen

L. Ambrose, on a charge of killing Charles W. Davis, at Peach Springs, on December 26th, 1889, closed at Kingman on Thursday, resulting in a verdict of not guilty. The evidence showed that press dispatches of that date were false and did injustice to Ambrose. That he was assaulted that morning by Davis without cause, and Davis being whipped made numerous threats to kill Ambrese before night. Ambrese tried leave town, but was prevented by Corner Drug Store. Agent R. A. Bailey, who threatened to report any conductor that would carry him out. That evening while Ambrose was on duty at the telegraph key, Davis entered in a violent manner and assaulted Ambrose with a weapon bruising him seriously about the chin and mouth, saying he had come to do him up, and while Davis had him by the throat, with his head thrust through a window-pane, the fatal shot was fired. The popular feeling has been with Ambrose, and people generally are rejoiced ever the verdict. Ambrese was defended by E. M. Sanferd of this

Many a bright and materally gifted young min endowed with genlus has permitted his case to run on and on until remorse racked his intellect, and death claimed its victim. For remember, "Froccastination is the thief of time."

We have so arranged our treatment for the above diseases that it will not only afford immediate relief, but permanent ourse. REMEMBER, resquarantee to ferfeit.

8:100 for every case of private disease that we undertake and full to care. All interviews and lotters are sacredly confidential. Medicine packed so as not to excite curtosity, and sent by express if full description of case is given, but one personal biterview in all cases preferred. Consultation free. Send stamp for question list.
